

PROBLEM SOLVING WITH CHILDREN:
Helping Them Meet Social, Emotional,
and Behavioral Challenges

Dr. Fine will talk about specific strategies and approaches for problem solving with children.

Dr. Fine will discuss:

- the benefits of a problem solving approach
- unique ways of understanding children's behavior
- how this understanding shapes our responses to their behavior
- specific techniques for meeting a wide variety of needs

Attendees will come away from the program with a new way of understanding children's behavior and practical strategies for improving the quality of children's daily lives.
